Mr. Thurber said the matter would receive the President's attention, and the interview was over. The members of the delegation refused to talk about the matter, but it was evident they were disappointed at their failure to see the President. On Tuesday evening at St. Peter's Church ceive the President's attention, and the interview was over. The members of the delegation refused to talk about the matter, but it was evident they were disappointed at their failure to see the President.

No Attention to District Offices Yet.

Owing to the great pressure of more important matters the President has not, as yet, given serious attention to the matter of District appointments, but he will do so as soon as he finds time. It is said there is no special occasion for haste in the case of Mr. Ross, as he can continue to serve until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified. His friends are confident of his reappointment, basing their belief on the Miss Hannah Bresnahan and Mr. Aloysius C. Joy were married in the presence of a large gathering of their friends. The ushers were Mess's. Walter Kelly, Fred. Grim, Sam Hoover and Edward Rollison. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss E. C. Bresnahan, who were a lavender gown. The bride was escorted to the aliar by her brother, Mr. F. W. Bresnahan of Baltimore. A reception followed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Joy started on a northern wedding trip. The bride received a number of presents.
